1. INITIAL CONSULTATION

The client, Leon Treadwell, was advised of his right to silence and the implications of making any statements. The client was informed about the prosecution's reliance on CCTV evidence. Instructions were received to conduct a no-comment interview pending further disclosure.

2. DISCLOSURE

Disclosure provided by the police included mention of CCTV evidence. There were issues with the adequacy of disclosure as further information was required to advise the client fully.

3. INTERVIEW SUMMARY

The client was advised to provide a no-comment interview. During the interview, the client adhered to this advice and responded with "no comment" to all questions posed by the interviewing officers.

4. ADVICE GIVEN

Pre-interview, the client was advised to maintain a no-comment stance due to insufficient disclosure. This advice was reiterated during any breaks and post-interview.

5. REPRESENTATIONS

No specific representations were made to the custody sergeant regarding detention, bail, or conditions at this stage.

6. OUTCOME

The outcome of the attendance is not recorded in the transcript.

7. FOLLOW-UP ACTIONS

Solicitor:

1. Obtain further disclosure regarding the CCTV evidence.
2. Review the CCTV footage once available.

Client:

1. Await further instructions pending additional disclosure.
